SKI WITH CARE & CAUTION Watch for both natural and man-made obstacles. Ice, thin or bare spots and variations of the snow surface can and do exist. Be alert to continually changing conditions. Snow, ice, sheer drop-offs, bare ground, rocks, roots, stumps, trees, lifts and snowmaking towers, ruts, bumps and many natural and man-made objects are part of the inherent risks of all alpine activities. Falls or collisions with objects can cause catastrophic injury or death. Ski area vehicles may be in operation at any time on open terrain.

DO NOT SKI/RIDE NEAR SUCH VEHICLES OR EQUIPMENT. Fences, bumpers, pads, poles, signs, ropes and other apparatus are used as "Skier Awareness Devices." They mark hazards or obstacles and will not protect you from injury. Your safety is directly affected by your judgement. Failure to follow the posted "Your Responsibility Code" may result in the loss of skiing/snowboarding privileges.

Prior to using freestyle terrain, you are responsible for familiarizing yourself with all elements and landings and obeying all instructions, warnings, and signs. Freestyle skills require maintaining control on the ground and in the air.

Know the Code – Play It Safe Skiing and riding, in their various forms, are inherently hazardous sports. Trail and slope conditions change constantly with weather and use. It is your responsibility to avoid natural and manmade objects regardless of the presence of markings or other mitigation, and to avoid and use courtesy with other people. Hidden Valley uses many different types of marking devices to alert you to some hazards.

1. Stay in control.
2. People ahead have the right of way.
3. Stop in a safe place for you and others.
4. When starting downhill or merging, look uphill and yield.
5. Use devices to help prevent runaway equipment.
6. Observe signs and warnings, and keep off closed trails.
7. Know how to use the lifts safely.
